

CHECKING IN

Hilton luxury brand project to hit Fort Lauderdale Beach

Fort Lauderdale-based Orchestra Hotels + Resorts has launched Conrad Fort Lauderdale Beach Residences, a 24-story condominium and hotel at 551 N. Fort Lauderdale Beach Blvd. that will be the first resort-style Conrad hotel in the United States. The 290-unit project, on the site of the former Trump International Hotel and Tower, will receive over $30 million in renovations and upgrades and is scheduled for completion in 2015. It will include furnished condo-hotel units (studios to three bedrooms ranging from $400,000 to $1.3 million) and decorator-ready residences (studios to three bedrooms priced from $500,000 to $6 million). Amenities include a valet, fitness center, spa, 20,000-square-foot pool deck with cabanas and poolside restaurant and bar, a signature restaurant and lounge, on-site gourmet market and 20,000 square feet of meeting space. 954-749-7200, myconradresidence.com.

— Robyn A. Friedman

